Talk about a producer! BL FIFI 448 is an excellent longhorn cow. She has great genetics such JP Rio Grande. She is a beautiful girl that keeps her figure while raising a baby. She has a great horn set, she has a great top line and conformation and breeds back with ease. This great momma outproduces herself with correct calves that are highly sought after. She's well bred, easy to keep, and is a productive member of a herd. Currently
